Zion Baptist

By SUSIE HUNTER

"Praise ye the Lord for He is good."

Sunday, July 17 was a very hot day. Despite the heat, a large crowd attended the regular preaching service at Zion Baptist Church. The Rev. Lewis preached a very inspiring sermon.

Our sympathies go out to the Jones, Franklin and Goode families in the loss of their loved one. Mrs. Alise Womack is still in the hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

The Zion Baptist Sunday School will visit Kings Dominion July 23. The bus will be at the church by 8:30 a.m. All children through age 11 may ride the bus free. The cost of admission to Kings Dominion is $10. Parents are responsible for their children.

There will be no prayer or Bible study sessions during July and August due to revival.

Let us pray for the sick and shut-in everywhere.

SHEILA KAY MOORE, age 4, was crowned Baby Miss Campbell County at a pageant held June 28 at the Holiday Inn South in Lynchburg. Moore, Sr., and the great-granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson, Mrs. Estelle Moore and Mr. Howard Bryant. She has been competing in pageants for five months and has been awarded 12 trophies, and four tierras. She will be competing in the 1983 state pageant on Aug. 21.

Homecoming at Mt. Airy

Homecoming day will be observed at Mt. Airy Baptist Church on Sunday, Aug. 7. The 11 a.m. sermon will be delivered by pastor, the Rev. H. W. Pryor.

The Ladies' Club will celebrate their anniversary with the Rev. C. L. Elliott and one of his choirs as special guests in the afternoon service.

Lunch will be served during the day. Plan now to attend.

Let us continue to pray for the sick and shut-in everywhere.

All about green beans

By SHIRLEY W. WALTON
Extension Agent

Green Beans

Green beans are plentiful in gardens now. Because of many questions, I wish to share this information with you again.

Select beans with a fresh, bright appearance with good color for the variety. Get young, tender beans with pods in a firm, crisp condition.

Avoid wilted or flabby bean pods, serious blemishes and decay. Thick, tough, fibrous pods indicate overmaturity.

A bushel of snap beans weighs about 30 pounds and will yield 18 to 20 quarts of canned or frozen beans.

Wash beans and drain. Cut or break off ends; cut or break into 1 or 2-inch pieces. Slice lengthwise for french-style beans.

Canny Beans

RAW PACK Pack raw beans tightly to ½ inch to top. Add ½ teaspoon salt to pint jars; 1 teaspoon to quarts. Cover with boiling water, leaivng ½-inch headspace. Remove air bubbles by running spatula or knife between food and jar. Adjust jar lids.

Process in pressure canner at 10 pounds pressure (240°F.)

Pint jars .....20 minutes
Quart jars .....25 minutes

HOT PACK Cover cut beans with boiling water and cook for 5 minutes. Pack hot beans loosely to ½ inch of top of jar. Add ½ teaspoon salt to pint jars; 1 teaspoon to quarts. Cover with boiling-hot liquid, leaving ½-inch headspace. Adjust jar lids.

Process in pressure canner at 10 pounds pressure (240°F.).

Pint jars .....20 minutes
Quart jars .....25 minutes

String beans are low acid vegetables and should definitely be processed under pressure. The vinegar method is not safe or acceptable for processing green beans.

Freezing Beans

Heat beans in boiling water for 3 minutes in a blancher or in a wire basket in a large kettle. Work with small quantities of beans for best results. Use at least 1 gallon of boiling water for each pound of prepared beans. Put beans in blanching basket or wire basket and lower into the boiling water (60° or below) to stop the cooking. Allow 5 minutes for cooling.

Drain thoroughly. Pack beans, leaving ½ inch headspace.

Seal. Freeze; store at 0° F. or below.

Should you have a food preservation question or problem, call the Appomattox County Extension office at 352-8244. It is always a pleasure to help you.

Have a good week!

Food Preservation Tip Of The Week

To freeze cabbage, select solid, green heads with crisp leaves. Wash, discard the course outer leaves and cut the head into wedges or shred rather coarsely. Scald (or blanch) the wedges 3 minutes or the shredded cabbage for 1½ minutes. Cool, drain and package the same as lima beans.

Frozen cabbage is not suitable for use in coleslaw or salads, but is delicious cooked or in casseroles. A word of caution: The storing of cabbage in a freezer may not be a wise use of space and/or time.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
ZUCCHINI BREAD

Beat eggs, add and beat sugar. Add oil. Add dry ingredients with zucchini, add raisins. Grease and flour pans. Makes 2 loaves (regular size) or 4 small loaves. Bake in lowest rack at 350°F. for 55 min.

Group plans summer drama

To The Citizens Of Appomattox County:

Due to popular demand, you can look forward to another quality production from your hometown theatre group, Depot Dramatics. And, this summer's production will please a lot of people who have, in the past, requested that we present a dinner theatre. So, we're going to bring you the hit musical "I Do, I Do", along with a sumptuous meal on the nights of August 19th and 20th in the Appomattox County High School Cafeteria. "I Do, I Do", a delightful musical comedy about marriage, will star veteran performers Tamara Nash and David Caldwell. A limited number of dinner reservations will be available for both performances, so watch for details in the Times-Virginian.

What we need Now is HELP! This summer's production will not feature our usual large cast, but we do need some hard workers to be in charge of props, costumes, technical assistance, and assistance in preparing and serving the meal. If you'k like to help, please call me at 352-5383 as soon as possible. It will be a great experience to be a part of the "I Do, I Do" team.

We look forward to bringing you two fine evenings of entertainment. Remember -we'll be taking reservations soon, so watch for details. And, if you can help, call me today.

Thank you,
Debbie Rush, Director

Membership drive begins

American Legion Post 104 commander Dennis E. Gragg announced this week that the local post is conducting a membership drive, through Nov. 1.

The current member who recruits the most new members during this period, which began July 1, will receive a paid life membership for himself. Gragg notes that "this is worth in excess of $200 to the member who puts the most of himself into this project. We hope it will result in substantial growth of this American Legion post."

Anyone wishing to join this active organization may contact any current member, who will have application cards, eligibility data, and other pertinent information about Post 104.

"If you would like to belong and help support our community through our efforts, and attempt to exert a positive influence on the youth of today, come on out and join us in these efforts," Gragg concluded.
